Experience and Qualifications

If you have experience on a London Advisory Committee, please provide dates and details. (max. 250 characters): I do not have previous experience on a London Advisory Committee.

What do you hope to contribute or learn as part of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): Since moving to London over 30 years ago I've developed a strong relationship with many arts and heritage organizations across our city. My volunteering has encompassed opportunities ranging from tour guide to board director. Regardless of the level of my personal engagement though, I have always held the belief that a strong connection to our history and heritage plays a significant and integral function in the growth and evolution of our communities. Additionally I have over twenty years experience in the restoration and conservation of heritage homes in the Bishop Hellmuth and Wortley Village conservation districts.

How will you support the work of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): I'm an experienced manager in the federal public service who is looking to leverage my strong leadership, relationship management, and analysis skills in a volunteer setting helping preserve our city's heritage.

My key skills are in:

- strategic planning
- project leadership
- financial analysis and reporting
- change management

I have a great depth of knowledge in heritage design and materials, with specific interest in the re-use of historic buildings.

Please describe additional experience, training, or community involvement that will help you in your role as a Community Advisory Committee Member. (max. 250 characters): I have extensive background in volunteering and volunteer management across multiple sectors in our community including but not limited to:
