Experience and Qualifications

If you have experience on a London Advisory Committee, please provide dates and details. (max. 250 characters): No, I have no previous experience on a London Advisory Committee. I'm a newcomer.

What do you hope to contribute or learn as part of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): As a newcomer, I would like to learn more about the community I live in, and be an active part in it rather than being a passive member of the society. I also would like to meet, interact and exchange ideas with people from different backgrounds, so that I can expand my own perspectives. Furthermore, sharing ideas and group brainstorming about certain topics will enrich the final results.

How will you support the work of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): With 10 years of experience in the field of media and mass communication, I have established excellent communication skills. In addition, I have gained searching, interviewing and investigating skills. With that being said, I will be able to support the Community Advisory Committee with objective and professional information based on interacting with people and searching for stories, and to promote social and other community campaigns if needed in a targeted community such as the Arabic community, which I belong to.

Please describe additional experience, training, or community involvement that will help you in your role as a Community Advisory Committee Member. (max. 250 characters): Being a community activist and an initiative volunteer, as well as dealing with people from different backgrounds in deprived communities, made me more approachable and more tolerant. Being able to speak for those people and hear their part of stories, pain, point of views and other demands, had helped me better deliver their messages to those who are in charge and those who are responsible and in leadership positions.
