Experience and Qualifications

If you have experience on a London Advisory Committee, please provide dates and details. (max. 250 characters): Even though I never had the opportunity to serve the London Advisory Committee, I have served other organizations in the Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee, in which I learned about the tremendous multicultural structure of Canada.

What do you hope to contribute or learn as part of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): I hope to bring innovative ideas and strategies to the Community Advisory Committee to help better and advance the community. We as a committee can make a significant impact by continuously learning about diversity and cultures so the Community Advisory Committee can spread awareness in terms of acceptance, diversity and inclusion. I have worked with many diverse communities and cultures, which include: Middle Eastern, South Asian, Latino, Indigenous and LGTBQA. I believe my extensive contribution to the diverse communities programs helped me understand any issues within the multicultural community and come to a resolution.

How will you support the work of a Community Advisory Committee? (max. 250 characters): I will support the work of a Community Advisory Committee through my extensive community service experience. As an immigrant from India myself, I understand the issues and have experienced the struggle within Canada's multicultural community; therefore, I educated myself to become competent to analyze problems and come to a possible resolution. I have built a strong bond with the diverse communities in the past twenty years, which led to trust, compassion, and peace.

Please describe additional experience, training, or community involvement that will help you in your role as a Community Advisory Committee Member. (max. 250 characters): I am professionally trained and experienced to serve the communities in various areas such as Human Rights Advocacy, Community Analysis, Disaster Relief Programs and Feed the Hungry Program(homeless salvation)

To whom it may concern,

I am excited to find that the City of London is considering applicants for the Diversity, Inclusion and Anti-Oppression Community Advisory Committee position; therefore, I am enclosing my resume and requesting your consideration for this position.

Currently, I am providing services as an International Civil and Human Rights Advocate with the United Sikhs (United Nations Affiliated Organization). My role is to protect and enforce the civil and human rights of minorities and marginalized groups in the Canada east. I passionately help advance the economic, social, and spiritual empowerment of minorities and other marginalized groups and individuals in need, regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, social status, age, or ability.

I am also helping the communities as a community analyst with the Rights and Responsibility Awareness Initiative (RRAI). My role is to spread legal, financial, and cultural awareness to the Ontario community. As a Board Member with the RRAI Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee, I focus on representing different ethnicities and cultural backgrounds and educating communities about rights and responsibilities to make Canada a better welcoming place for everyone. We, as a team, have been passionately working hard for the communities, and with the community's positive feedback, RRAI was honoured to receive the 2021 Diversity and Inclusion Award by the City of London.

I have achieved an advanced diploma in Paralegal Studies with distinction from Trios College and currently performing in house duties in the following areas: Legal Research and Writing, Legal Ethics, Employment Law, Human Rights, Civil Litigation and Landlord & Tenant Board. I am a passionate individual with the mind to provide access to justice, serve the public, and administer justice with ethics and professionalism. I have also achieved an advanced diploma in Police Foundations Program from St. Clair College. Because of my excellent performance in college, I was honoured to work as a volunteer with many law enforcement agencies such as the O.P.P, Windsor Police Service, and the Ministry of Corrections.

I am skilled in communicating in multiple languages, such as English, Punjabi, Hindi, and Urdu. Moreover, I am a motivated, creative, and resourceful individual who strives for success in all my endeavours. I sincerely hope that my application warrants further consideration.

Yours Truly,

Prabh Gill
