Bike lockers and Storage

Rethinking where and how to store our bikes.

Where are they?

- How many?

Costs:

Long Term:

- The monthly rental fee is $20/month (plus HST). In addition, the Applicant shall pay $100 as a security deposit. A key to the locker will only be provided upon full payment of the fee and security deposit.

Short Term:

- The hourly Movatic rate is free for the first 2 hours; then $0.50 per hour for a maximum of 24 hours. Then, this resets for a new rental period of 24 hours.

Size of Locker

- A locker is large enough to hold one standard adult-sized, two-wheel bike. It is not large enough for many bikes with tall handle bars, many e-bikes, trikes, cargo bikes or long-tail bikes.
- The locker door opening is 45" tall and 30 <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>" wide.
- The interior of each locker is a triangle shape with the narrow end at the back. The cyclist can back their bike into the locker.
- The locker has enough space for a helmet, jacket or other outer clothing, a pack, and other related cycling gear ordinarily used by cyclists.

Let's Rethink.

- What are the Limitations?
- What do we want to see?

The end!
