Brief description of initiative: I am disabled and use a wheelchair. I have been volunteering at the London airshow for the last 6 years. As a person with a disability, the London Airshow Organizers have worked with me to be included in volunteering in a safe and an accommodating. They make the airshow accessible and safe for all like from making exceptions for paratransit pickups, making sure my meals are gotten to me when the grass fields were too rough or soft for my wheelchair. I am always welcome back asked back at the end of the show before the next year show happens. I am treated with respect and dignity and inclusion.
