

Dear Sir/Madam,

As a citizen of London and a resident of Westmount, I urge you to refrain from introducing any exemptions to the Animal Control Bylaw that would allow new zoos in the city. I am particularly concerned about the issue of a reptile zoo at Westmount mall. I have had conversations with quite a number of people about this issue and everyone of them opposes this bylaw change.

Thank you for your consideration.

Lavoyne Jackson