Chair and Members, Corporate Services Committee,
City of London, Ontario

Dear Chair and Members,

As Community Co-chair of the London & Middlesex Local Immigration Partnership (LMLIP), I am pleased to submit the attached proclamation request of Dr. Victoria Esses, Chair of the Welcoming Communities Work Group of the LMLIP. This proclamation request is for the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, March 21, 2023.

The London & Middlesex Local Immigration Partnership (LMLIP) is a community collaborative initiative funded by Refugees, Immigration and Citizenship Canada since 2009, to facilitate the successful integration of immigrants in our region. LMLIP is co-led by the City of London and driven by more than 100 volunteers from different sectors including immigrants with lived experience.

Please see the attached background on the work that has been done by the LMLIP and its partners since 2017, in commemoration of the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, to make our City and region a more welcoming community.

Thank you for considering this request
