Special provisions are requested to permit the proposed use and the existing front yard setback of 0.64 metres, whereas 1.5 metres is required. Changes to the currently permitted land uses and development regulations are summarized below.

The Zoning By-law is available at london.ca.

Current Zoning

Zone: General Industrial (GI1) Zone

Permitted Uses: Bakeries; Business service establishments; Laboratories; Manufacturing and assembly industries; Offices support; Paper and allied products industries excluding pulp and paper and asphalt roofing industries; Pharmaceutical and medical product industries; Printing, reproduction and data processing industries; Research and development establishments; Warehouse establishments; Wholesale establishments; Custom workshop; Brewing on premises establishments; Service Trade; Existing Self-storage Establishments; Artisan Workshop; Craft Brewery; and Tow Truck Business.

Height: 24.0 metres

Requested Zoning

Zone: Light Industrial Special Provision (LI1(_)) Zone

Permitted Uses: Apartment buildings; lodging house class 2; senior citizens apartment buildings; handicapped persons apartment buildings; continuum-of-care facilities.

Special Provision(s): To a permit a self-storage establishment use; and a minimum front yard setback of 0.64 metres, whereas 1.5 metres is required.

The City may also consider additional special provisions.

Planning Policies

Any change to the Zoning By-law must conform to the policies of The London Plan, London's long-range planning document. The subject lands are in the Light Industrial Place Type at the corner of an Urban Thoroughfare and Neighbourhood Connector. The Light Industrial Place Type is intended to facilitate a broad range of industrial uses that are unlikely to impose significant impacts on surrounding light industrial land uses due to their emissions such as noise, odour, particulates, and vibration.

How Can You Participate in the Planning Process?

You have received this Notice because someone has applied to change the zoning of land located within 120 metres of a property you own, or your landlord has posted the public meeting notice in your building. The City reviews and makes decisions on such planning applications in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act. If you previously provided written or verbal comments about this application, we have considered your comments as part of our review of the application and in the preparation of the planning report and recommendation to the Planning and Environment Committee. The additional ways you can participate in the City's planning review and decision-making process are summarized below.

Attend This Public Participation Meeting

The Planning and Environment Committee will consider the requested zoning changes at this meeting, which is required by the Planning Act. You will be invited to provide your comments at this public participation meeting. A neighbourhood or community association may exist in your area. If it reflects your views on this application, you may wish to select a representative of the association to speak on your behalf at the public participation meeting. Neighbourhood Associations are listed on the Neighbourhood website. The Planning and Environment

Committee will make a recommendation to Council, which will make its decision at a future Council meeting.

What Are Your Legal Rights?

Notification of Council Decision

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the City of London on the proposed zoning by-law amendment, you must make a written request to the City Clerk, 300 Dufferin Ave., P.O. Box 5035, London, ON, N6A 4L9, or at docservices@london.ca. You will also be notified if you speak to the Planning and Environment Committee at the public meeting about this application and leave your name and address with the Clerk of the Committee.

Right to Appeal to the Ontario Land Tribunal

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Corporation of the City of London to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the City of London before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.
